

K-LOVE and other national stations serve our community well, and they should not be crowded out by LPFM stations that offer educational only programming that will not be of interest to most listeners.